the report in the light of the recommendations made by the Council during the Special Session has almost been completed and it is hoped to effect the reorganisation during the early part of next year'. I want to know whether it is correct. This report was made some four days back. Here it is said that they cannot add anything more to what has already been said.

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—The decision regarding that has been finally stated by the President himself in his remarks that orders on this Committee report will be forthcoming by the first week of Chingam.

President.—What I said was the concluding stages in the consideration of this report have almost been reached and that I have reason to think that orders will be passed at the commencement of the ensuing year.
